The arbitration board shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee or employer affected by it. The decision of a majority is the decision of the arbitration board, but if there is no majority the decision of the chairman governs.

9.02 No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

9.03 Except with the consent in writing of both parties, no matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through all requisite steps of the Grievance Procedure.

The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties, and may not be changed. The Board of Arbitration shall not have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. A claim by an employee who has completed his probationary period that he has been unjustly disciplined, suspended or discharged shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievances is lodged with the Employer at Step #2 as set out in clause 8.04 within five (5) calendar days after the discharge or suspension is effected. Such special grievance may be settled under the Grievance/Arbitration procedure by:

- (a) confirming the Employer's action in discipline, discharging or suspending the employee;
- (b) reinstating the employee without loss of seniority and with full compensation for time lost; or
- (c) by any other arrangement which may be deemed just and equitable in the opinion of the parties hereto if at the Grievance stage or by the decision of the Board of Arbitration if dealt with at the Arbitration stage.

ARTICLE 11 SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority is defined as the length of service with the Employer and shall be used as a factor in determining preference or priority for promotions, transfers, demotions, layoffs and recall. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis.

11.02 The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each employee's service commenced. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted on the bulletin board within one (1) month of the signing of this Agreement and once annually thereafter.

11.03 Newly hired employees shall be considered on a probationary basis for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of hiring. During the probationary period employees shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of this Agreement and be bound by all the obligations herein save as follows:

(a) The probationary employee shall be paid a wage which is one dollar and twenty five cents ($1.25) an hour less than wages prescribed on Schedule "A" for Medium Equipment Operator.

(b) In the case of discharge the probationary employee shall have no right to file a grievance or have recourse to the arbitration procedure;

and

11.06 If an employee is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit, he shall retain his seniority acquired at the date of leaving the Unit, but will not accumulate any further seniority. If such an employee later returns to the bargaining unit, he shall be placed in a job consistent with his seniority in so far as possible.

ARTICLE 12 PROMOTION AND STAFF CHANGES

12.01 When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created within the bargaining unit, the Employer will post notice of the position on the bulletin board for a period of five (5) full working days so that present employees may have an opportunity to apply for the position.

12.02 Such notice shall contain the following information: Nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift, hours of work, wage or salary rate or range.

12.03 Both parties recognize:

(a) the principle of promotion from within the service of the Employer;

(b) that job opportunity should increase in proportion to length of service; and

(c) that it is not always possible for the Employer to "promote from within".

Therefore, in making staff changes, transfers, promotions, lay-off and re-call from lay-off, the qualifications, skill, ability and seniority of applicant employees shall be considered. Where the skill and ability of two competing employees are relatively equal, seniority shall govern provided the employees affected have the qualifications to perform the work.

If the Employer considers the employee satisfactory in the position the appointment shall be considered permanent at the end of the trial period. In the event the Employer considers the employee unsatisfactory or if the employee finds himself unable to perform the appointed job, he shall be returned to his former position and other employees promoted or transferred as a result of the appointment shall be returned to their former positions.

12.06 A "lay-off" shall be defined as an individual employee not being called in to work for five (5) consecutive work days or more. During a period of "lay-off" all benefits provided for in this Agreement shall cease. Provided however, if allowed by any particular benefit plan, an employee who is laid off may continue such benefit plan through the Employer if full payment for such benefit is made by the employee to the Employer at least ten (10) days prior to the applicable remittance date for each such benefit.

12.07 In the event of lay-off employees shall be laid off in reverse order of their bargaining unit wide seniority provided he has the qualifications to perform the required work. An employee about to be laid off may bump any employee with less seniority, provided he has the qualifications to perform the required work and providing the employee exercising the right to bump shall include the right to bump up.

12.08 No new employees will be hired by the Employer to fill bargaining unit positions until those on lay-off, in the order of seniority and who are qualified for the vacancy to be filled have been given an opportunity of re-call.

12.09 Except if applicable legislation provides otherwise, the Employer shall notify employees who are to be laid off not less than ten (10) working days prior to the effective date of lay-off.
